Your wedding day should be one of the most wonderful days of your life, but if you fail to plan - it can also be the most stressful! That's why it's important to choose the right company to organise and manage your wedding, leaving you free to enjoy and cherish every minute of your special day.

The professional team at Khana Khazana have a wealth of experience in organising everything from intimate engagement and birthday parties to large scale themed corporate events and prestigious wedding celebrations.

'inspirational ideas to make your day truly unique and memorable'

We'll cater for your every need from recommending the right venue to the selection, preparation and service of your buffet or silver service grand banquet. Our two-tiered copper karahi carousels with twinkling tea-light burners will make a stunning centrepiece to your table and keep the cuisine at the perfect temperature to ensure optimum enjoyment of your wedding or celebration banquet.

We have an abundance of inspirational ideas to make your day truly unique and memorable, and our attention to detail will provide all the finishing touches from elaborate backdrops and mandaps to creative table decorations with personalised menus, fabulous floral creations and spectacular ice sculptures for that additional 'wow' factor! We can even provide a photographer and camera operator to capture those precious moments, a DJ to help you party the night away and luxury chauffeur driven limousine travel to really put the icing on your perfect VIP day!

So whether it's your wedding, engagement or other celebration you're planning, call us today and you will soon find out that when Khana Khazana takes care of it all - it's a marriage made in heaven!
